Edna: He is a wizard, but he isn't real.

Mike: Harry Potter is a book character. There (are/is) seven books by Joanne Rowling about him. They are my favourite books.

Dennis: Harry Potter doesn't have a mother or a father — he (live/lives) with his uncle and aunt and their son. The boy's life is not easy, his aunt and uncle (don't like/doesn't like) him. On his eleventh birthday Harry (meet/meets) a friendly giant, Hagrid. Hagrid (tell/tells) Harry that he is a wizard and (take/takes) the boy to the most wonderful magic school in the world — Hogwarts.

Ling: In Hogwarts young wizards (study/studies) magic subjects: the History of Magic, Transfiguration, Astronomy, Flying. There are four houses in Hogwarts. The cleverest pupils (go/goes) to Ravenclaw, the bravest pupils (go/goes) to Gryffindor, the kindest pupils (go/goes) to Hufflepuff and the most cunning pupils (go/goes) to Slytherin. Harry (go/goes) to Gryffindor. The houses compete for the most important prize of the year — the House Cup. Pupils (work/works) hard all year because they want to get it. Harry (like/likes) the school and his new friends, but he has an enemy too. Voldemort, the darkest wizard of all times, (want/wants) to kill him.

Morgana: Will Harry's friends help him? Will Harry be all right?

Kim: You can read the books and find out, Miss Morgana. You (love/will love) these books.

Morgana: Yes, they are about witches and wizards. I (like/will like) them.
